The Cordish Company celebrated the ground breaking of its Maryland Live! Casino at Arundel Mills on Thursday.

Maryland Live! will be the largest gaming facility in Maryland, featuring 4,750 of the latest slot and electric table games, including black jack, roulette, craps and poker. The 300,000 square foot facility will also feature multiple upscale dining establishments and an intimate live music venue. Five restaurants and entertainment venues have already attached their name to the project, including Bobby Flay, The Cheesecake Factory and Ruth's Chris Steak House, Obrycki's Seafood and live music venue Rams Head.

Maryland Live! will be constructed by the Commercial Interiors/TN Ward Joint Venture. The Joint Venture is majority owned by the Anne Arundel County-based Commercial Interiors and is the only Gaming Facility in the State to be built by a Maryland Minority-Owned Business Enterprise.

The Arundel Mills commercial district currently offers 3 million square feet of retail, entertainment and commercial space and 1,200 hotel rooms. Located halfway between Baltimore and Washington D.C., Maryland Live! will tap into one of the densest regional markets in the U.S.
