IMMOKALEE — Collier County sheriff's deputies arrested two men late Saturday after they said the men jumped another man during an event at the Seminole Casino Immokalee.

Thong Van Le, 21, of Indianapolis, and Phong Chieu Huynh,

24, of Cape Coral, were each charged with battery.

Deputies were called to the casino just before 11 p.m. Saturday, in response to a fight during what reports describe as an "Asian event." The victim, Dat Nguyen, told deputies that someone jumped on his back from behind and started hitting him in the face, according to an arrest report. He couldn't see who hit him.

Surveillance video showed Le and Huynh attacking Nguyen. They were also identified by a casino employee.

Le told deputies that he and Huynh had an issue with Nguyen from the past.
