RIVERSIDE, Calif. — Officials say 14 people are injured following a crash near a California casino.

The Riverside Press-Enterprise reports () that two people suffered critical injuries in the crash at 8 p.m. Saturday near the Pechanga Resort and Casino in Temecula <http://bit.ly/rQUcp4>

The paper says fire officials reported four others had moderate injuries and eight sustained minor injuries.

Casino spokesman Robert Bledsoe tells the paper that a shuttle carrying New Year's revelers from the casino to their cars may have been driving on an access road when it collided with a vehicle exiting the casino area.

There was no immediate word from the California Highway Patrol on the cause of the crash.
