The operator of the future Rivers Casino and Resort at Mohawk Harbor received approval from the city Planning Commission for its signage package, minus the massive pylon sign it originally sought. Rush Street Gaming of Chicago decreased its total signage for the casino and hotel from a total of 14,928 square feet to 7,479 square feet. Signage for the casino only includes wall-mounted signs and does not include plans for the proposed 1,622-square-foot pylon sign.
