Gambling with play money has been a tradition for St. Elizabeth School's Casino Night event.

Several hundred parents and supporters of the Catholic school gathered at VFW on Saturday night to play BlackJack, Roulette, Craps and other casino games - all for a good cause.

Thanks to the school's sponsors and donations, players were able to trade in their casino chips for raffle tickets for door prizes including Apple TV, PS4, Visa card, spa certificate among other prizes.

The night started off with a dinner and ended with hot pots of menudo.

All proceeds go towards private school education.
