WAYLAND, MI — Staff members at Gun Lake Casino received more than $611,000 total in quarterly incentives this November, the casino announced Tuesday.

The casino, which employs almost 1,000 team members, has awarded over $16.4 million through its bonus program since 2011, according to a news release from the employer.

“Throughout these times our priority focus has been the health and safety of our guests and team members with our Play It Safe Initiative,” said Sal Semola, Gun Lake Casino president and chief operating officer.

“I extend a heartfelt thank you to our team members and the community for complying with our safety protocols and continuing to follow these measures diligently. The awarded bonuses are only one way we display our appreciation for the constant efforts of the hundreds of team members we employ.”

The casino — located along U.S. 131 in Allegan County, between Kalamazoo and Grand Rapids — became the latest casino in Southwest Michigan to open a sportsbook, the Stage 131 Sportsbook and Lounge, on Oct. 3.
