Casino Stocks Rise After Atlantic City Workers Decide Not to Strike on July Fourth Weekend

Friday, 01 July 2022 09:30 - MGM Resorts International Caesars Entertainment	al :	and stocks were on a move Friday after the two with Atlantic City casino union workers, avoiding	•		• At issue were the casino workers' wages. Contr	acts of union-repres	sented workers e:	xpired at the end of May, after which they voted to strike on July 1, the start of one of the year's busiest holiday weekends. But the tentative agreement reached on late Thursday night with four

Caesars Entertainment

casinos-MGM-owned Borgata and

-owned Caesars, Harrah's, and Tropicana casinos—averts this strike.

Read more https://www.barrons.com/articles/casino-stocks-rise-51656685841