For a great weekend excursion and a chance to cash in, head to Bally's in Evansville, IN, approximately a three hour drive from Nashville.

The casino sits along the Ohio River and offers stunning views from Cavanaugh's On the River, a stunning fine dining restaurant. Enjoy steak, seafood, signature drinks and more. Recommended is the Blackened Neptune, consisting of a filet with grilled shrimp and crab meat, flavored with Choron sauce. The sauce can be compared with Béarnaise sauce, with the addition of tomatoes. The dish is accompanied by Parmesan herb mashed potatoes. Savor the surf 'n turf while enjoying views of Ohio River at sunset. There are additional casual options including The Deli and Tap House.

The Piano Bar at Cavanaugh's On the River offers a cozy and classy vibe, entertaining guests with local talent.

The property has two hotels for convenience and comfort, Bally's Tower and Legend's Tower. In addition, there is a conference and riverfront event center.

For a relaxing getaway of fine dining and gaming, consider Bally's Evansville as a great couple's, girls or friend getaway. Click here for more information.
